

PRIVACY & COOKIE STATEMENT DOB EQUITY

Your privacy and trust are important to us and this Privacy Statement provides important information about how DOB Equity handles personal information.

In this privacy statement we will use certain terms:

- Personal data: data that directly and indirectly identify you. For example: name, address, date of birth, nationality, photos, but also income.
- Processing: any act that can be performed in relation to personal data. These may include collection, storage, use, but also removal of your data.

1. Whose personal data are processed by DOB Equity?

We only process, collect and utilise the personal data which you provide directly, or data which have evidently been submitted to us for processing purposes. These are data of persons with whom we have, wish to have, or used to have, a direct or indirect relationship. This may include personal data of:

- Investees, their representatives and stakeholders;
- People, companies and organisations who show interest in our work, activities and projects;
- Persons who are associated with a business or organisation with which we have, wish to have, or used to have, a relationship, consultants performing services or assignments for us.

To protect your interest as well as our own, we may process personal data to third parties. For example for purposes of fraud control.

2. For what purposes does DOB Equity personal data?

Your data shall be processed fairly and in compliance with the European privacy law (GDPR) and Dutch Privacy Law (AVG). We process personal data for the following purposes:

- To be able to enter into a relationship with you;
- To maintain the relationship with you and to execute an agreement or a contract;
- For purposes of our operations. For example, we process personal data in various steps of our investment process, and to enter into agreements or other forms of contract. Also as an investor, it is necessary for us to obtain an overview of our investee's organisations in order to assess our risk when providing a loan and when obtaining equity;
- To perform statutory obligations. We are required by certain national and international laws and regulations to collect data about you. In order to fulfil legal requirements, we sometimes have to disclose personal data to tax authorities in and outside the Netherlands. In addition, based on our duty of care, we are required to process personal data whenever there is cause to do so;
- To protect your and our vital interests. We may process personal data, for instance, to investigate fraud. To fight cybercrime we may transmit your data to third parties. We only do so after we have made strict arrangements with these parties regarding the careful use of your data;
- For promotional purposes. For example to inform you about an event we organise that may be of interest to you or for communicating on our investments and projects on our website. If we want to send you a newsletter, we will ask for your permission. You can withdraw your permission at any time;
- For archiving purposes. We do not collect more data than is necessary for the purpose set out above. If we do not store data for those purposes we may nonetheless do so for archiving purposes. This means that the data will only be used for legal proceedings or for historiography.

3. Does DOB Equity also process sensitive data?

Sensitive data are special types of personal data, for example criminal data or racial or ethnic data. We will process sensitive data only if so required by law, with your consent, or at your request.

4. Cookies
